STATE EXPENSES.

The "Gazette's" Plan for Cutting them Down.

The Reno Gazette of Tuesday presents the following:

In view of the possibility of a failure to call a Constitutional Convention, the Gazette presents the following suggestions for reducing the expenses of the State government, which can be done under the present constitution by the incoming Legislature by repeals and amendments to existing laws, and without detriment to the public service:

Commence with the Legislature and limit the session hereafter to forty days. Make a new apportionment and reduce the Senate to fourteen members and the Assembly to twenty-four. Fix the per diem of members at five dollars, and mileage to cover only actual traveling expenses both ways. Limit the number of officers and attaches and fix their per diem on a scale graduated to the service rendered at prices paid for clerical labor in business pursuits at the present day.

Dispense with the deputies in the State Capitol and at the prison and make a limited appropriation to pay for two months' clerk hire annually in the preparation of reports in the offices of Controller, Treasurer and Land Registrar.

Dispense with the Clerk of the Supreme Court and transfer his duties to the Secretary of State with compensation on a fixed per diem for attendance on open sessions of the court, and allow him the present fees for all other services. Provide for the bailiff the same as at present. Dispense with the private secretary of the Governor, and require the Secretary of State to keep the records of the Board of Pardons and Prison Commissioners. Require the Lieutenant-Governor to perform the duties of State Librarian. Dispense with the Curator of the Museum and the salary of the Board of Directors of the Orphans' Home. Limit the force of clerks in the State Land Office to actual needs under the oath of the Land Register and fix the compensation.

Stop the boot and shoe manufactory at the State Prison and lease convict labor and proper bonds and restrictions in the construction of irrigation works. Reduce the appropriation for the expenses of the Fish Commissioner, and also the State Printing Office. Fix the amount for the household expenses of the Superintendent of the Insane Asylum and the Warden of the State Prison, and the Superintendent of the Orphans' Home. Then scale down the salaries of all constitutional officers to take effect at the close of the terms of the present incumbents. By this you will curtail the present expenses, as follows:

Under the old plan the Legislative expenses would be $51,674.15.

Under the proposed plan $18,900.

The State Government would cost under the old plan, $34,300.

Under the new $7,050

The other savings, would swell the total amount saved every two years to $42,287.

Aside from this should also be included the amount to be saved in clerk hire in the Land Office where is now paid for that service the sum of $3,000 per annum, and also for draughtsmen the sum of $1,800 per annum. This may be materially reduced, and with a limit on the household expenses of the Warden of the State Prison, and the Superintendents of the Insane Asylum and Orphans' Home, the State expenses may be reduced at least $45,000 per annum, which is one fifth of the average annual cost of running the State Government.

This can all be done without any impairment to the public service, and will prove beneficial in paying the way to other reforms four years hence, wherein the amount saved may easily reach $80,000 per annum, or more than one-third of the present cost of the State Government.

We consider it unnecessary to present any argument in support of the above plan, for that will be done before the Legislative committees, and merely submit it for the purpose of awakening interest in the subject, and with the hope that it may aid legislators in devising means to accomplish the reforms they are pledged to.

The New Orleans Imbroglio.

The Examiner has the following:

As is usual before any great professional contest the very wise men are beginning to give "tips" in relation to the coming fight at New Orleans.

One such convulsively grasped a reporter's arm yesterday and, dragging him into a doorway, whispered: "Just got the straight thing about the Dempsey fight. Fitzsimmons will lose surely, and for a money certainty that will be as big as his winnings if he should win."

"You see," said the knowing one, "Fitzsimmons is in the ring to make money, and if he whips Dempsey his career will end, because nobody will fight him. If Dempsey whips him Fitz can make twenty or thirty paying battles with men whom Dempsey has whipped. Take my tip and wager on Dempsey, if you bet at all."

Respect for Fitzsimmons' power seem to increase as people study him more carefully. His peculiar form and carriage are misleading. He seems slow and awkward, but is not so.

On the contrary, he is a six-footer of good physique, who is simply bone and muscle at 154 pounds. In ordinary flesh his weight runs not far from 170 pounds. Just how Dempsey, even conceding his wonderful generalship and skill, is going to overcome such a handicap as Fitzsimmons' form and reach is not easy to understand.

It was stated last night that the special rate to New Orleans for the Dempsey-Fitzsimmons fight, secured by W. R. Vice, had been declared off by the Southern Pacific Company, and that the party which intended to go down had broken up.

The precise age of Jack Dempsey seems a matter for concern to many of the men about town. He was born at the Curragh, County Kildare, Ireland, on December 15, 1862.

Robert Fitzsimmons was born at Helston, Cornwall, Eng., June 4th, 1862, and is therefore, six months older than Dempsey.

Coast Warriors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—Orders have been received for the two companies of the Fourth Cavalry at the Presidio to be in readiness to move to the scene of the Indian troubles. Two batteries of the Fifth (light) Artillery have also been ordered to get ready to move.

State Printers.

The following constitute the working force at the State Printing Office:

H. C. Dunn, Foreman; T. Kramer, Pressman; R. H. Davis, Assistant Pressman; W. L. Taylor, Job Printer; Compositors, Messrs Higgins, Roach, Cummings, Rosenthal, Lawrence, Peters, Green, Woodliff, Thompson. J. Kearns does the "heavy" work.

They are as handsome a lot of types as ever "turned a rule" or charged a "price and a half."

A. Livingston now practically controls the wholesale liquor trade of the city. He is continually adding to his stock and sells only standard brands. He is also introducing some excellent California wines to the people of Carson, as well as foreign and domestic cigars of the finest quality. Drop in and inspect his holiday stock.

FURNISHED ROOMS.—I am prepared to furnish rooms at a reduced rate. They are well kept and clean, making them very desirable.

T. J. Connolly.
